

Local radio stations have not been responsive to programming wants or needs. For this reason we turned to satellite radio. Please do not limit this medium from presenting local information that is not reliably available on local radio outlets.